

1988 Ann Arbor City Tennis Tournament
In the Ann Arbor News

NEWS PHOTO • MARCIA WATSON

Betsy Mehaffie rests between sets of a 6-1, 6-0 victory over Sheila Hamp that gave her the Women's A Singles title.

Women's A Singles: After playing one of her poorest matches in Saturday's semifinals, Betsy Mehaffie was on top of her game Sunday in a 6-1, 6-0 win over Sheila Hamp. "I just came out ready to play today," said Mehaffie, who lost in the finals a year ago. "I had total confidence in my groundstrokes, and I was even coming up to the net, which I rarely do. Compared to yesterday, my head was totally in the game." Said Hamp, "Betsy played beautifully. She couldn't miss. She played really well."